SUGAR.

The estimates of production of sugar in 1903 in the countries adhering to the International Union for Sugar Statistics are now known and I beg to insert the figures of them as follows: last year's results in parenthesis. The sugar production is expected to be, in Germany, 1,803,160 tons (1,750,670 tons); in Australia, 1,116,300 tons (1,051,900 tons); in France, 757,000 tons (821,000 tons); in Belgium, 215,300 tons (200,000 tons); in Holland, 129,300 tons (102,300 tons); in Russia, 1,103,000 tons (1,169,000 tons); in Sweden, 110,795 tons (73,400 tons); and in Denmark, 51,800 tons (37,050 tons). The total of all the countries comprised in the Statistical Union thus would be 5,286,555 tons, as against 5,156,930 tons, and adding for the countries remaining outside of the Union, such as Spain, Italy, Roumania, etc., 220,000 tons, as against 210,000 tons last year, a grand total of 5,506,555 tons would be reached, against 5,366,930 tons in 1902-1903, and there would be moderate surplus of about 140,000 tons, which, barring any large excess against the estimates, should be easily taken up by the consumption, supposed, by the way, to be in excess at a much larger rate than hitherto on account of the reduced taxes in almost all countries adhering to the Brussels' convention. It may be remarked, however, that there are much higher estimates in the field, and that the highest and lowest figures differ by no less than 65,000 tons. This is, you will admit, a very wide margin, leaving plenty of room for conjecturing in commercial circles, and for bull and bear movements. Let me add a few words with regard to the estimate of the German crop. There are in the campaign 1903-04 only 34 factories in activity, as against 300 last year, so that six have vanished from the scene. The saccharine quality is bound to be somewhat lower than last year, namely 13.79 per cent against 14.47 per cent in 1902-03 and the total production is estimated to be about three per cent larger than last year's. All this, you see, is in strict harmony with the opinions which I ventured to express with regard to this year's crop, and I hope that not only the estimates but also the real results will bear out my prediction on the subject.

In spite of the late legislation against saccharine this stuff has again become the subject of public discussion and of complaints by the sugar manufacturers. The new law has left a very small loophole for the sale of saccharine and it seems to be made use of on a large scale. The law provides that at the drug stores, which are exclusively permitted to sell saccharine, a very small quantity can be sold without medical prescription. But this provision has led to an abuse which is quite contrary to the spirit of the law, inasmuch as many such small quantities are very frequently and sometimes even at once called for and sold so that in many places the apothecaries do quite a flourishing business in saccharine without violating the law as it is, but setting that taught by the method of their dealings. The object of restricting the sale of saccharine only for medical purposes is certainly not reached, and it would therefore seem necessary to replace the above provision by a more stringent act of legislation, both in the interest of the sugar industry and of the Imperial treasury, which is sustaining heavy losses of the sugar tax. You will remember, however, that I always insisted on the saccharine question being a very knotty one and that it would be a hard thing to hit on measures putting a stop to the competition of saccharine against sugar, because of the very small volume which is peculiar to the question.

The China Sugar Refining Company, in Hongkong, closed the year 1902 with a loss of 600,000 Mexican dollars. The annual report of the establishment declares this unfavorable result to be the overproduction of beet sugar, which caused such a drop of prices that cane was not able to compete successfully.—Kuhlow's Review.

THE INFLUENCE OF MUSIC ON DISEASE.

REMARKABLE ARTICLE IN "THE LANCET."

Strange as it may seem that a medical journal should especially urge physicians to hear a symphony as a means of professional information, this is precisely what The Lancet does. Berlioz's Fantastic Symphony has been recently performed in London, and the paper just mentioned recommends it to pathologists as powerfully setting forth "the vague" aspirations, the longings, the loneliness, and the horrible visions of insanity." Says the writer: "The protagonist of the symphony is a musician who is possessed by an 'idée fixe' (fixed idea) naturally connected with a woman with whom he is in love. The first movement gives this idée and illustrates his longings, and in the second movement he sees his love at a ball. Here the lights and the swirl of the dancers are marvellously illustrated by the glitter of harps and the shimmer of a waltz theme played by the muted strings. In the third movement the scene is laid in a pastoral country where a melancholy shepherd, illustrated by a theme for the cor anglais, calls to his love, who answers him on the oboe. The duet continues for some time, and finally the cor anglais calls for the last time, but elicits no response but the mutterings of a thunder-storm. The young musician concludes from this that his love is hopeless, and so takes opium to end his misery. He only takes enough, however, to give him fearful dreams, the subject of which is his own march to execution for having killed his love. The dismal procession is set forth with wonderful skill. By means of the throbs and mutterings of the drums and of the double-basses we find suggested the tramping of feet and the many-voiced cries of the attendant crowds which haunt the hearer with a horrible sense of uncanny surroundings. With a crash the axe falls, but the hero's sufferings are not over, for, although he is dead, he is now at a witches' Sabbath, where the theme of his life dies."

hideously burlesqued and vulgarized, is piped on a clarinet while the assembled witches jeer. Under all pulses the terrific plain chant of the Dies Irae. It is not soothing music, but so far as one can enter into another's brain and convey his sensation to others Berlioz has certainly made his music a means to so doing."

THE APPEAL TO ARMS.

The telegrams from our Correspondents in London and Yokohama, published elsewhere in these columns, leave no doubt that, in a few hours perhaps, news will reach us to the effect that the first blow has been struck in a struggle, the end and results of which are difficult to foresee. By the patience and courtesy she has given proof of in her lengthy negotiations with Russia, Japan has offered an example of moderation and tact to the whole of the civilised world. It is almost unnecessary to mention that no blame can be attached to the Government of that Nation because an appeal to arms has now become necessary. The world has been well informed of the untiring efforts of the Island Empire to obtain a satisfactory settlement of the Korean and Manchurian questions from the Muscovite Government, and how each of her attempts was successively met by the same procrastinating policy, embodied in replies devoid of good faith and definite promises. Russia is alone to blame, and is solely responsible for the result of the conflict which has now become unavoidable. Apart from the awe which besets us prior to an inevitable struggle between two great nations, the present pause before an actual overt act of hostilities has been announced is fraught with deep foreboding to all the citizens of our Empire, who ask themselves whether or not we shall be dragged into the vortex of the struggle. That right is on the side of Japan there can be no question, and that she will soon be struggling for her very existence as a nation is also sure. Our treaty with that brave nation leaves no room for ambiguity; for, in Article I, it states:—"The High Contracting Parties have mutually recognized the independence of China and Korea." Japan has thrown down the glove to Russia and is about to fight to ensure the independence of China and Korea, which means that she will be struggling to maintain a cause that is also Britain's. Article 2 runs:—"If either Great Britain or Japan, in the defence of their respective interests... should become involved in war with another Power, the other High Contracting Party will maintain a strict neutrality, and use its efforts to prevent other Powers from joining in hostilities against its ally." It is not necessary to enlarge on the importance of the last paragraph in this Article, since it is couched with remarkable clearness for a diplomatic document and clearly indicates that Britain must be armed and prepared to prevent any other nation from joining Russia in the struggle which has begun. Our responsibility in this matter is also pregnant; for, who can tell what surprises the legendary cunning of Russian statesmanship may yet reserve for us. Therefore, in duty to our ally, to our honour, and in our own cause—for our interests in Eastern politics are identical with those of Japan—it behoves us to look the situation squarely in the face and to hold ourselves ready for all eventualities. That Russia will do her best to secure an ally, by offering a share in the spoil, there is little doubt, and, should she succeed, our role becomes definitely aggressive, for Article 3 of the treaty states:—"If in the above event (an outbreak of hostilities) any other Power or Powers should join in hostilities against that ally, the other High Contracting Power will come to its assistance and will conduct the war in common and make peace in mutual agreement with it." The extent of our responsibility in the present situation is well defined and its gravity must be recognised if we are to be ready for the worst. Should the worst arise it is to be hoped that we shall not be found wanting, and it lies with those who are at the head of our Government to have prepared for war and to have done all in their power to ensure success, since not only the interests but also the honour of the nation may be involved. We have learnt something as a Nation since September 1899 with regard to being prepared. As our National Poet says:—

"Let us admit it fairly, as a business people should,
We have had no end of a lesson;—it will do no end of good."

Let us hope that it is so, and that the history of the year that has just begun will prove that we were ready.

It is reported from Canton that the high provincial authorities of that city having received information that another attempt will be made on Chinese New Year's Day (16th instant) on the lives of all officials by the Triads, have ordered the troops and military police of Canton city to be prepared for eventualities at any time. It is also reported that some 15,000 troops will stand to arms on the 14th, 15th, 16th, and 17th instant, as it is suspected that these are the dates when the Triads intend to make a disturbance in Canton.

LORD Charles Beresford is justifying his command of the Channel Fleet at least in one respect. He is devoting great attention to gunnery, and is giving the vessels under his command every opportunity of practice. He has, moreover, issued a series of instructions in respect of gunnery which must be of the greatest importance to the vessels under his command. The best result has been obtained on board Lord Charles' own flagship, the Majestic, which on the occasion of a series of tests with the 12-inch gun made 23 hits in 37. This is a world's record at the particular distance and with a weapon of this weight. The shooting of all the vessels in the fleet was excellent.—Ex.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

H. K. CLUB V. SHERWOOD FORESTERS.

On the Happy Valley ground, before a very good turn-out of spectators, these Clubs tried conclusions in a friendly fixture. The weather was fine, though windy, and the teams lined up as follows, with the exception of Ancott who turned up late:—

H. K. F. C.:—Kew, goal; Worcester and Ancott, backs; Gray, Kew and Austen, halves; Williams, Cooper, Bonnar, Robertson and Brent, forwards.

S. F.:—Bromp on, goal; Walker and Beck, backs; Wilkins, Watson and Jones, halves; Rayner, Godber, Bishop, Burden and Beresford, forwards.

Referee:—Mr. Broadbent.

The soldiers kicked-off and, playing a "long kick and rush" game, were soon attacking, and the Club backs, not playing in good form, the soldiers' forwards soon became very dangerous, Kew being called upon to clear twice in rapid succession. Up and down the field play was now the order of the day, both goalkeepers being tried and not found wanting. The Club right wing of their forward line showed up very prominently, and Cooper and Williams, by pretty combination, got right down the field and finished up by banging into the centre, but Bonnar hit the bar with his shot and the ball, rebounding, he could not get to it before it went out. Play now drifted up to the Club goal, and, presently, the scoring was opened by a fast one out of reach of Kew. Play was now practically all in the Club ground and shortly afterwards Kew, in gathering the leather, fumbled with it on the ground. The ball appeared to be over the line, but a Forester forward dashed up and put it beyond question. Heartened by this success the soldiers were soon hard at work around their opponents' sticks, and being allowed a penalty their right outside man, apparently the Forester's "shooters," easily beat Kew and added the third goal for his side, just on the call of half time, which found the game:—

Sherwood Foresters..... 3 goals.

H. K. Club..... nil.

Taking into consideration that during the latter half of the first period of the game the soldiers had been all over their opponents, who had been playing very like a beaten team, the general expectation seemed to be that the Club were going to have a big score put up against them, but the opening passages of the second half showed that there were still two teams in it. After play had ceased up and down the field, the Club had very hard lines in not getting a goal as after attacking strongly they had an open goal in front of them with no goalkeeper in it, but at the critical moment a back dashed up and kicked off effecting a fine save. After several determined efforts on the part of the Club, the Foresters again took up the unending and getting well down the field their outside man sent in to the centre and a forward shot in. Kew fumbled the leather in gathering, and it rolled between the posts. This goal appeared to be an offside one, but was allowed, making the Foresters fourth. The soldiers now had play in their own hands and Kew was very quickly called upon to save, this time being equal to the occasion. Nothing further of note took place. The Foresters having the play in their favour until the whistle blew for time, leaving the game:—

Sherwood Foresters..... 4 goals.

Hongkong Club..... nil.

It was a game full of incident, but at no time was playing brilliant. The home club were minus several players and the forward line was disorganised and sadly lacked a good forward on the centre. Cooper and Williams were, as usual, the best wing and, combining splendidly, they treated the spectators to several very fine passing runs which deserved a better fate than a goalless finish. Bonnar played a good individual game in his new position, but centre forward is not his place by any means. The other wing was very weak indeed. At half the Club were fairly well served Kew playing well, but at full back they are weak Worcester being very uncertain and Ancott, though better, not a first-class back. The goalkeeper did not treat us to such a good exhibition as is his usual. The Foresters are a team of workers, but it is doubtful whether their "long kick and rush style" of their forwards will be successful against a good defence. Though they adopt this play a great part of the time, they give some good exhibitions of the passing game and their attacks will take some stopping by the best of backs. On both wings they are well represented, their right outside man being very clever and, in this match, was too much for the opposing back, whilst the left outside seems to be a fine shot at goal. At half and full back they have reliable men, and as their goalkeeper showed up favourably they appeared to be a well balanced team and will have to be reckoned with in any estimate as to the winning team in the competition.

MADAME CANDOTTI'S CONCERT.

Madame Candotti, who was a pupil of Rubinstein at the Conservatory of Music in St. Petersburg, selected for her performance in Hongkong on Saturday evening, four items that were calculated to display the perfection which she had attained in the mastery of the piano and management and control of her brilliant voice. Of these, her principal work was the rendering of the Rigoletto Paraphrase by Liszt, the audience listening with intent ear to the thrilling passages, so tunelessly and feelingly rendered, which satisfied the mind and heart with its subtle music. Madame Candotti was assisted at her concert by the Philharmonic Orchestra, and the members of the German Liedertafel, Miss Murray Bain, Mrs. A. G. Gordon, Mr. A. H. Ough, Mr. G. H. Edwards, Mr. G. Grimbale and Mr. A. G. Ward.

THE STRANDING OF THE S. S. "AUSTRALIAN."

The full text is now to hand of the finding of the Osaka Marine Court, delivered on 25th ult., regarding the responsibility of Captain H. D. James, as pilot of the M. M. steamer Australian, for the stranding of the vessel recently in the Inland Sea. It will be remembered that the licence of Captain James was ordered by the Court to be suspended for two months.

The text of the finding reads as follows:—

The defendant, Henry David James, who holds a pilot's licence for the districts of Tokyo Bay, Nagasaki harbour, and the Inland Sea, acted as the pilot of the M. M. steamer Australian, 2,900 tons register of Marseilles, which left Kobe on the 26th September, 1903, for Mutsumi or Kure Island, Nagasaki province, by way of the Inland Sea. At 3.47 a.m. on the following day, the 27th, the steamer was abreast of and three-quarters of a nautical mile from the south-eastern end of Oshima, Iyo province, and proceeded on her course, bearing on Sazai Point of Umajima Island with the object of passing through the waterway (chusuido) of the channel of Oshima. At this time the weather was fine, with a soft southerly breeze, the tide was just beginning to ebb, and the steamer was proceeding at a speed of about fifteen knots. At about 3.55 the steamer was half a nautical mile from Sazai Point, when the helm was ported in order to bring the vessel into the waterway. The angle of the helm indicated four points and a half, but the head of the steamer, as a matter of fact, was observed to turn in an opposite direction. Thereupon the order "helm hard a-port" was given, and, danger becoming imminent, the engines were stopped and simultaneously reversed to "full speed astern." But this was of little avail, and at 3.57 the steamer, by its own forward motion and also by the pressure of the current, stranded west of the Sazai Point of Umajima Island. The bottom of the steamer on the port side was badly damaged, and water entered the vessel. Assistance with the object of floating the vessel proved successful, and the steamer was got off at 11.12 a.m. on the 8th October and proceeded to Nagasaki to dock. These facts are proved by the reports of the Governor of Ehime, the master of the Australian, investigations made by the Kobe Marine Office, the plan made by the Mitsu Bishi Dockyard Company, Nagasaki, showing the damage done to the bottom of the steamer, and the evidence of defendant before this Court.

In carefully considering the evidence, the Court finds that the stranding of the Australian was due to an error on the part of the pilot, Henry David James, in the discharge of his duty. Defendant did not alter the helm at the proper time, nor did he alter it to suit the speed of the current in navigating a narrow waterway. This action of the pilot comes under the provisions of No. 1 of Clause I. of Article 19 of the Pilot Law, and is to be punished in accordance with No. 2 of Article II. of the Seamen's Disciplinary Law, in observance of Article 21 of the Pilot Law. The case is, therefore, decided as follows:—

The pilot licence for Tokyo Bay, Nagasaki harbour, and the Inland Sea held by Henry David James, is suspended for two months. The cost of the proceedings, amounting to ¥7.50 is to be borne by the pilot.

HONGKONG AND FISCAL PLEBISCITE.

As will be seen elsewhere, says the Kobe Chronicle, the fiscal plebiscite in Hongkong, the "free port" par excellence, has resulted in an overwhelming majority for Mr. Chamberlain's policy. We intend to consider shortly what this commits the Hongkongites to. Meanwhile it may be pointed out that the intense opposition aroused in Hongkong by the grant to China in the recent Commercial Treaty of power to increase her import tariff was evidently quite illogical, for if Protection is a good thing for England, why should it not be a good thing for China? While on this subject, it is worth referring to a curious self-revelation made by the London Times. Lord Rosebery in a recent speech pointed out the skill with which Mr. Chamberlain had captured the Press. "All of a sudden," he said, "there comes forward this magic musician, who plays a few notes on his pipe, and in a moment the whole mass of this highly respectable and, I thought, firm and convinced Free-trade Press begins to caper." Thereupon the Times remarks:—

Before ever the great controversy opened, we had constantly, in the course of the past few years, taken the opportunity of expressing our scepticism as to the all-sufficing beneficence of the free import system under which we live. So long, however, as it was complacently accepted by British statesmen, the question remained of necessity a more or less academic one. . . . The widespread support commanded by Mr. Chamberlain . . . is the support inevitably accorded to a great man who gives expression at the appropriate moment to feelings long shared by very many of his countrymen, and embodies them in a great policy which is sufficiently clear-cut and comprehensive to be intelligible to all.

The conclusion to be drawn from this, apparently, is that the Times has no mind of its own on these questions, but takes its cue from statesmen of influence. And yet the Times has been described as a "leading" London journal. The "leading" seems somewhat far to seek.

A BAND of 50 coolies, each armed with an iron bar and led by a man with a drawn sword, invaded the office of the Nippon Shimpu on the night of the 27th and destroyed everything they could find. The Japanese Times sagely remarks that "the general belief is that the attack was undertaken for the purpose of preventing the publication of the paper."

The Northern Crisis.

LONDON, 5th February.
 Reuter's correspondent at Port Arthur wires that the Russian fleet put to sea at dawn on Wednesday and returned to the anchorage outside the harbour at 4 p.m., yesterday.
 A conference of the Elder Statesmen of Japan was held yesterday at which the Emperor was present. It is understood that a decision of the utmost importance was reached.

LATER.

Russia and Japan.

Russia's reply was forwarded yesterday to Admiral Alexievich, which, if approved of by him, will be despatched to Tokyo where it will arrive on Monday at the latest. The belief prevails in St. Petersburg that Russia does not concede to Japan's demands regarding Manchuria. The Times correspondent in St. Petersburg says that the Tsar's hesitation has been overcome and that Russia makes no concession.

6th February.

The Daily Graphic says there is no essential change in the tenor of the Russian note since 29th December. Although conciliatory in tone, Russia firmly declines to accede to the wishes of Japan regarding the integrity of China. The note makes concessions on other points, but this is the vital issue and Japan's resolution to reject the terms is unaltered.

Mr. Chamberlain.

Mr. Chamberlain is going for a two months' trip, it is believed, to Egypt.

More Pay for the Fighting Men.

Imperial ordinances are published in the Official Gazette to-day, revising the remuneration of the soldiers and sailors in military districts and at military bases.

News from Japan.

Tokyo, 2nd February.
 The news is circulated unofficially that the Japanese Government is awaiting Russia's rejoinder eagerly and impatiently.
 The conference of the Elder Statesmen and Cabinet Ministers was not held to-day.
 At a Cabinet meeting to-day it was decided that the enhancement of the different taxes should be enforced under parliamentary consent, that is, without resorting to an emergency imperial ordinance.
 Different reports reaching here agree in mentioning Russia's military activity.
 The newspapers expect that Russia's answer will be unfavourable, and maintain a pessimistic view of the result.

A Special Correspondent in Trouble.

Tokyo, 2nd February.
 Mr. Jack London, correspondent for the Hearst newspapers, en route for Chemulpo, was arrested to-day at Shimomoseki for taking photographs within the strategic zone, and was escorted to the Kokura Court.

Naval Preparations at Port Arthur.

Tientsin, 26th January.
 A foreigner from Port Arthur states that the number of Russian warships there now is thirty. There are also eighteen transports loaded with provisions and munitions of war. The military preparations are being pushed ahead both day and night.—Mainichi.

Russian Military Movements.

SIXTY THOUSAND MEN AT INKAO.
 Tientsin, 27th January.
 An Inkao despatch states that five or six hundred Russian soldiers daily arrive on the banks of the Liao-ho. They are taking up positions between Shiamention and Inkao. The total number of soldiers in these districts is estimated at 60,000. It is believed that Russia intends to make Inkao the centre of operations.—Mainichi.

Chefoo, 26th January.

The 9th, 10th and 12th Regiments at Port Arthur and one Regiment at Dalny have completed preparation to set out for the banks at the Yalu. Some of the troops belonging to these Regiments are believed to have left for their destinations on or about the 20th. Two companies of the Artillery left Port Arthur some days ago. Their destination is believed to be the Yalu. Nearly 3,000 soldiers have arrived at Port Arthur by train and steamers. The China Eastern Railway Co. has reduced the rate of freight between Newchwang and Port Arthur and a large number of coolies in these districts have lost their means of living. It is feared that they will turn robbers. The Russian authorities discovered that gunpowder had been laid at several places near Port Arthur in order to destroy the railway, and ten were arrested. At Tachikao a band of coolies quarrelled with the Russian soldiers on the 23rd, and three soldiers were killed. One officer was also injured.—Asahi.

England's Friendship with Japan.

VISCOUNT HAYASHI AND THE FREEMASONS.
 London, 27th January.
 Viscount Hayashi, Japanese Minister to England, was last night installed as Grand Master of the Empire Lodge of Freemasons amid scenes of the utmost cordiality.

Russia and the Dardanelles.

ATTEMPTS TO COERCE TURKEY.
 London, 27th January.
 Russia is constantly endeavouring to persuade the Sultan of Turkey to allow the entire Russian Squadron to pass the Dardanelles. Up to the present the request has been emphatically refused.

(Der Ostasiatische Lloyd.)

Berlin, 3rd February.

Havas Agency learns that the contents of the Russian rejoinder to Japan, which have been presented in Tokyo on Saturday, have been intimated to the Cabinets in London, Paris and Washington. It appears that Russia has made therein such important concessions that Japan cannot longer take the responsibility of going to war. The German government has, so far, not received a similar communication. Perhaps it was not sent, owing to Germany having stated from the start that she does not wish to be drawn into the Russo-Japanese conflict, nor would she take part in any mediation of other Powers in Tokyo.

THE WAR!

PROPOSED WAR-TAX.

RUSSIA MOBILISING.

Having regard to the importance of the part that Great Britain may be called upon to take in relation to affairs in the North, it is of considerable interest to watch the movements of the British fleet in the vicinity of Hongkong. For some time past unusual activity has been noticeable in the Admiralty anchorage, and this morning two battleships—H.M.S. Vengeance and Albion—and yesterday H.M.S. Centurion left the harbour, ostensibly for Mirs Bay. Other warships are believed to be awaiting sailing orders.

Vice-Admiral Sir Gerard Noel left England on the 5th inst. for the China station.

We hear on excellent authority that the Japanese cruisers Nisshin and Kasuga are proceeding from Singapore direct to Sasebo, near Nagasaki, thence to Kure and Yokosuka.

A Chefoo correspondent of the Singapore Free Press is evidently determined that his paper shall be well up with the times, for he sent the following "scoop" to the Straits paper on 29th ult.:—The Russian steamer Argon, proceeding from Nagasaki to Dalny, was fired on with blank ammunition by seven Japanese battleships, who then steamed three times round her. Japan is adopting Russian tactics to force war.

It is difficult to understand what is being done by the Japanese Government, says the Kobe Chronicle of 28th ult. The authorities are reticent and prevent the publication of news of operations actually in progress, so that the country appears to be bewildered at the present situation. Our correspondent at Tsuchima wired us yesterday that the prices of commodities on the island have risen rapidly, which may be taken to indicate that the island is now crowded with troops, and it seems probable that the Japanese squadron is also in Tsuchima. Whether the sixty transports chartered by the Government are also there we cannot say, but presumably they are not lying idle and are being used for some purpose or other, as the coast of Korea is only a few hours' sail away.

It is now confidently stated that at the Council on Tuesday, which we announced yesterday would be held, the Government proposed sanctioning the raising of a War-tax, which was afterwards approved by the Elder Statesmen. It is proposed to raise the fund by doubling the Land-tax, Income-tax, and Sugar Consumption-tax. This decision will be announced by an Urgent Ordinance immediately the approval of the Privy Council has been obtained. It is also decided to issue Exchequer Bonds, which will be announced in a few days. The bonds will call for Y100,000,000, bearing interest at 5 per cent., redeemable in five years, the issuing price being Y96 for Y100 face value. In the event of any of the bonds being unsubscribed they will be taken up by the Bank of Japan.

RUSSIAN BATTLESHIP DAMAGED.

A telegram from Port Arthur to Tokyo states that one of the Russian battleships there has sustained serious damage to her machinery. The necessary repairs will take about fifty days. It is stated that 100 British marines and 200 Indian troops now at Tientsin are ready to start for Korea at a moment's notice, presumably to strengthen the Legation guard at Seoul if necessary.

WAR MUNITIONS.

The P.M. steamer Siberia, which arrived here from San Francisco a few days ago, is reported to have carried in her cargo a shipment of 19,000 bags of nitrate of soda, amounting to 700 tons. The nitrate is presumably needed in the manufacture of powder, and was hurriedly shipped on the Siberia in obedience to rush orders, instead of being shipped in the usual manner on sailing vessels. The Siberia also carried heavy consignments of mess beef and other food supplies for Japan.

Mr. Uyemura, the representative of the Japanese residents at Newchwang, has approached the Japanese Consul at Newchwang as to whether it would be advisable for them to quit Harbin. The Consul is, however, endeavouring to prevent any unnecessary alarm being felt by the Japanese residents.

RUSSIA MOBILISING.

The Daily Mail publishes a St. Petersburg telegram to the effect that Russia has ordered the First Reserves and troops of the Army divisions at Kharkoff, Odessa, and Kiev, 86,000 in all, to be ready for mobilization.

The depression of trade in Tientsin is severe. Seven or eight Chinese banks have already closed their doors. The rate of foreign exchange at the foreign banks is very irregular on account of the critical situation. Transactions are almost suspended.

An official return made on the 21st ult. shows that there are fifteen Russian warships and ten torpedo boats at Dalny, and seven warships at Port Arthur, five at Vladivostok and one each at Shanghai, Chemulpo and Chefoo.

The Russo-Chinese Bank has remitted the sum of two million five hundred thousand taels to Manchuria from Peking and Tientsin.

THE CHARTERING OF N. Y. K. VESSELS.

The Directors of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, states the Japan Mail, have considered it advisable to address a circular to all the Company's branches and agencies pointing out that the error must be avoided of imagining that the employment of the Company's steamers in the public service will be a source of profit as was the case in the China-Japan war. There is a vital difference of conditions. At the time of the China-Japan war the Company was in receipt of a fixed amount of subsidy irrespective of the service maintained by it, and the temporary interruption of those services did not cause any interruption of the subsidy. But the present system is that the sums allowed by the Treasury are for services actually performed, and since the services cannot be performed owing to withdrawal of the steamers for other purposes, the payments from the Treasury necessarily cease. In addition to the loss of this important source of income, there is the fact that the steamers are chartered at very low rates, much lower than those now ruling in the open market. Thus from every point of view the Company will suffer heavily and its employees are warned to be prepared for the fact.

COAL.

A recent arrival from Port Arthur was informed that the stock of coal there at present is 120,000 tons of Cardiff, and 80,000 of Japanese. There were forty men-of-war in and outside the harbour. The Viceroy has over 100,000 troops under his orders, and 80,000 more are on their way out from Russia via Siberia.

The Imperial Resident at Urga has wired to the Waiwupu that there are 3,000 Cossacks and 2,500 Mongolians. The Chinese troops are not allowed to leave their barracks except unarmed, and the hapless Resident wants to know what he is to do.

There were eight warships at Chemulpo, on the 28th ult. These are the French cruisers Paul and Gueydon, the Russian cruisers Variag and Korietz, the Italian cruiser Elba, Talbot, the American gunboat Vicksburg, and another cruiser.

It is stated that the Korean Government has decided to admit Americans and Europeans into the Imperial Court for the protection of the Imperial family in case war should break out. A "certain American gentleman," it is reported, has already conveyed a part of his furniture into the Imperial Household.

Little or nothing has been heard during the last month or so of the despatch of Russian reinforcements from military stations in home governments in Russia to the Far East. Nevertheless, considerable numbers of men have been despatched eastwards. The troops are transported in large covered vans with floor sleeping space for from forty to fifty men. The average military transport train consisted of about twenty such vans, half of which in many cases were loaded with commissariat, ammunition and other stores. Thus the average number of men carried on each of these mixed trains would appear to have numbered from 400 to 500. On several occasions, however, eastward-bound military trains passed through Irkutsk fully laden with men, with the exception of two or three rear vans laden with light transport and kits, and equipped with a military train kitchen. An additional order for 30,000 ammunition boxes has just been divided out among the "village industries" of several home governments in Russia, and the field kitchen factory in St. Petersburg is reported to have been recently turning out large numbers of officers' and men's field-ranges.—Shanghai Mercury.

The Echo de Chine says that it is denied at St. Petersburg that preparations are being made for mobilisation. Meanwhile commercial traffic will be suspended on the trans-Siberian railway on Tuesday.—It is not believed that Russia is prepared to satisfy Japan on all points. An agreement will, however, be come to on the following essential points:—
 (1) A Japanese protectorate.
 (2) Recognition of the situation of Russia in Manchuria, with free ports in compensation for this.
 The exchange of views actually going on is concerned with what are secondary matters, such as the guarantees to be given to Russia for the protection of the communications with the Far East and the form of Japan's control over certain Korean interests. It is believed that a modus vivendi will be reached.

The Formosa people have offered to subscribe several hundreds of thousands of yen to the impending war loan.
 In reference to the Elder Statesmen, the Japan Mail says that Marquis Ito is the supreme source of counsel in foreign politics; Marquises Yamagata and Oyama in war matters; and Counts Inouye and Matsukata in finance.

The Manila American of 29th ult. is a startling journal, it being announced in bold headlines on the strength of New York cable that "Germany aids Russia." "Copenhagen will be seized by the Kaiser in order to keep the English fleets from the Baltic and away from Kronstadt." "Troops mobilizing with great rapidity in Holy Russia." Soldiers are being rushed towards the Far East at the rate of seven thousand a day. "Congestion of travel at Irkutsk caused by the heavy ice field in Lake Baikal. Rolling stock from all over Russia hurried northward. A large number of locomotives required to keep the lines free from snow so that troops may run." "Chinese clans are gathering. There is drilling and marching and joining the mobilized forces all over the celestial empire, and when this is ended there will be 250,000 Chinese with their colours in the debatable province." Who complains of the absence of war news?

THE NEW CRUISERS.

The following interesting note is from the Kobe Chronicle of the 31st ult.:—
 A telegram from Genoa, dated the 8th ult., says when it became known that the Nisshin and Kasuga would depart from Genoa that night there was great excitement throughout the town, and crowds of people flocked to the harbour to bid farewell to the ships, of whose strength and speed, says the telegram, they are justly proud. The correspondent continues:—"An especial interest centres in the warships, too, because half of their crews will be Italians, and because the engines are entirely of Genoese construction. Contrary to what has been asserted, the Nisshin and Kasuga have kept the Japanese colours hoisted from the moment they were turned over to the Japanese authorities. The vessels are commanded by two Englishmen, Captain Boyle and Captain Lee, and the other officers are also English, with the exception of five Japanese. The crews, numbering 300 men to each ship, are equally divided between Italian and English nationality. One hundred and twenty English artillerymen embarked on the vessels last night. The Commanders of the Nisshin and Kasuga have received sealed orders, which will be opened on the sea. At the last moment the departure of the war-ships was delayed to await the receipt of money from the Japanese Legation at London, but it is expected the vessels will sail early to-morrow morning. On board each war-ship the utmost gaiety prevails, and the crews are extremely impatient for sailing orders. The Japanese officers are particularly jubilant."

Peking letters received here lately report that all officials in the capital who can afford to do so are sending their families to the South owing to the receipt of certain news from Japan of imminent hostilities between that country and Russia, and the consequent forced participation in them of China. It is unhesitatingly believed in Peking that the Russians will try to seize the Chinese capital in order to dominate the Imperial Court, while among the other hostile movements Russia will attempt the occupation of all Mongolia and China. Turkistan the moment China joins Japan.

The Russian warships and torpedo boats, which passed the Suez Canal a few days ago, are expected to reach Formosa Straits on or about the 15th inst.

Inquiries made with reference to the reported occupation of Newchwang by 7,500 Russian troops show that the troops did not enter the city or the foreign settlement, but took up a position several miles outside. We have very good reason to believe that the troops in question were on the march towards Port Arthur, and were not designed to threaten Newchwang with occupation. They probably included the troops from Tientsin, Chinwangtao, Shanhai-kwan and elsewhere, who would be due in the neighbourhood of Newchwang about Tuesday last, the date upon which our informant saw the troops encamp.—P. & T. Times.

THE POSITION AT PORT ARTHUR.

PANIC AND DEPRESSION IN THE AIR.

Writing from Port Arthur on the 26th ult. the correspondent of the Shanghai Times says:—

Since the war has seemed to have become inevitable, the Russians here who were formerly constantly boasting of their strength and ability to crush Japan without an effort, and talking of war as if Russia would have a walk over, have all of a sudden become quite different men. More especially the Russian merchants—usually most bellicose—are now busily preparing to leave for home, at breakneck speed. Since about a week ago Russian troops have been arriving from Tientsin and Shan-hai-kwan. The 9th, 10th and 11th Infantry regiments left Port Arthur on the 23rd some by steamer, others by train. It is believed here that they are destined for Korea.

In the Soldatskaya here, the main road of Port Arthur, there is a large open space. From early in the morning of the 23rd many Russian military officers have been rushing around all very busy inspecting the muster of impressed horses.

The fact soon became known everywhere, the Chinese coolies and general residents began to quake with fear and apparent imminence of trouble, many of them starting to leave Port Arthur at once so that the Russians will soon suffer from a scarcity of Chinese labour.

Several more guns have lately been sent up to the fort on Hwanchin hill. All the shops in the town are holding "cheap sales" so as to get ready cash, to enable their owners to bolt. It is painful to observe the sadly altered air everyone now wears compared to the jaunty hectoring manner of a few months ago. Even the Chinese coolies are whispering that Japan will soon be master in Lui Shun Kow instead of Russia.

COMMERCIAL.

PUNJOMS.

The acting secretary of the Punjom Mining Co. informs us that the result of the January, 1904, crushing at the Punjom mines, as received by wire is as follows:—67 ounces gold from 950 tons are crushed, estimated value being $2,500. A subsequent wire received on the 6th instant announced an "important discovery at Manik, likely to prove a valuable ore body." The directors have instructed Mr. Lock, the Raub Australian Gold Mining Co.'s Manager, to report on the value of the concession generally so that they may lay before the general meeting which is expected to be held in March next, as complete a statement as possible of the value of the company's property.

TO-DAY'S INTELLIGENCE.

The withdrawal of all the Japanese steamers, in consequence of the war now considered as practically existing, has helped further to the appreciation of prices for all shipping companies' shares. Douglases are firmer at $35 and Indo-Chinas have risen another point to $81. China Sugars have also advanced and can be sold at $106.50. Hongkong Docks are required for at $208 after small business being done at this rate.

Messrs. Erich Georg & Co. write in their Weekly Share List, dated Hongkong, 6th February:—A few Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company shares sold at $209, but the market closes quiet at $208, and this in spite of the report that the directors will recommend a dividend of $5 and a bonus of $1 per share for last half year, write off about $42,000, and carry forward about $420,000.

Shanghai advices, dated 3rd inst., report business done:—Indo-Chinas at Tls. 53 cash, Tls. 54/55 for March, and Tls. 56 April. Farnham Boys at Tls. 128 for March, and Tls. 129/30 for April. Maatschappij at Tls. 297/4. China Flour at Tls. 76 C.N.I. Pulp at Tls. 115 for March. Astors at $164.
